

2-Dec-18	Dr. Li	+861085231457	30	https://www.zhongguoqiangyuan.org.cn/zhongguoqiangyuan.org.cn/zhongguoqiangyuan.org.cn/zhongguoqiangyuan.org.cn/zhongguoqiangyuan.org.cn/	611*	Contact person: Dr. Li (doctor on duty), Surgical ward of Urology, Beijing Chaoyang Hospital Organ needed: kidney How long the wait: Li says that as kidney donors come one by one, the caller should contact the director for a certain answer. Organ source: Falun Gong practitioners Price: 100,000 RMB for deposit, 4-500,000 RMB in total	1. The caller double-checks if kidney source is Falun Gong practitioners, and Li double-confirms. 2. In general, the hospital gets kidney donors from the origin directly, not via agents. But it might be the case the organs are harvested by agent outside hospital. Either case, the source is the same. 3. Kidney donors are of good quality. 4. Kidneys are harvested in hospital. 5. The caller: How long does it take for organ harvesting in general, for it must be the case that when you harvest kidney, you also harvest heart and liver at the same time. How long does it take? Li: It depends on the size of organ. The larger an organ is, the longer it takes. In general, it takes 3-4 hours. The caller continues to ask: so does it mean that, from disinfection, draping until things get done, it takes 3-4 hours to harvest the organ? Li: Yes. 6. In the end of the call, the caller asks if the procedure is that, after an organ is harvested, it should be washed and then kept in preservation fluid. Li confirms.	phone call from the investigator pretended as Sichuan Province Central Political and Legal Affairs Commission deputy director. to Beijing, Kidney. Origin harvesting in hospital; 100,000CNY; 2-3 weeks	1. the physician on duty confirmed that the organ(kidney) was from FG practitioners 2. the organ was harvested in hospital 3. the organ harvesting procedure usually lasts 3-4 hours, depending on the size of the organs		Dr. Li, Doctor-on-duty at the Urology Surgery Department of Beijing Chaoyang Hospital. The normal kidney sources from Falun Gong (practitioners). Generally speaking, not only take a kidney, but also the heart and liver, it takes about three or four hours for this process.	2018_Report_-_09_17_-_https://www.usaid.gov/pressroom/press-releases/default.htm/2018-12/17-121.pdf
----------	--------	---------------	----	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------