

Yu Xinhui

Male, restaurant worker Austin, Texas.

My email is [removed]. During my detention in the Guangdong Sihui detention centre, around the end of 2001, I was subject to physical check-ups and blood-tests. The prison personnel said these were for the purpose of seeing whether we had AIDS or any contagious diseases. From 2003 Year begins to 2005 years, I've had three of these types of so-called checkups. For example, blood pumping, urine test, asking if there is a heart, liver, kidney history, eye examination and so on.

The amount of blood they took out was enough to fill a tube; the holder for the tubes probably had seven to eight in a rack. Each person's blood went into eight or so. The prison ward doctors were in white uniforms. Military police stood there watching, they don't get involved, they just watched. They were there throughout the entire check-up process, they weren't there usually.

I was also subjected to chest X-rays. I had chest x-rays three times, the exact same procedure. Only once, they just looked at me a little, other times, they took the whole X-ray.

The first time, they used the machine and looked a little. I don't know if they took the X-ray or not, but I feel that they were just doing a preliminary check-up. The other times after that however, they did the full check-up, taking the X-ray and processing it. Once, they had a urine test. The three times were in late 2003, summer of 2004, and February or March of 2005.

They didn't look at my mouth or ask me to open my mouth; they looked at my eyes. They took a rubber tube and stuck it down my mouth. It was a black tube. It went all the way down to my stomach, as thick as a finger. I think they were doing examinations, I don't know why. I did not have physical wounds at the time. They don't care about illnesses. They didn't ask me anything about my health. It was weird, they tortured us so cruelly, but at the same time say they care about our health, quite contradictory

In late 2004 one of the prisoners who was assigned to surround me and make me renounce my beliefs once said: "If you don't do what we say then we'll torture you to death and sell your organs." That was a criminal saying that. They tried to threaten us with that one time. I felt that he knew that the government does organ harvesting, so he was threatening me with that.

Everyone in the prison knows about this. Usually in the prison, regardless of whether the person is deceased, if he is sent to the prison hospital, he faces the reality of having his organs removed at any moment.

Everyone in prison knows that there exists a list of names. People [are] taken away, and no one will return. Every year it's like this. They always take away a group of people.

Not too many. Sometimes several dozen, sometimes under twenty, from every place they call a "prison ward". The harshest time was in the middle of 2006. I remember it was at midnight. Suddenly we heard the noise of a vehicle starting outside. We were very curious, because the whole prison was very quiet. So I stuck my head out of the window to look, as did some other prisoners. We saw parked outside were three or four large buses, with iron bars blocking the windows. There were also a few armed police's military vehicles, as well as the prison guards' cars and some ambulances like the ones from the hospital, but they were not official. Then in several columns the armed police and the prison guards entered into the prison ward I was in.

Then, starting from the first floor, noises kept arising. When it finally reached our floor, the third floor, I heard that the guards and the police were scolding the prisoners, "Don't look. Turn your face. Lie on the bed." "When your name is called, come out immediately. You are not allowed to bring anything." Then only names were called, one after another.

Sometimes only one name would be called for a prison cell. When they reached my cell, they called away three prisoners.

I saw that everyone's eyes were filled with fear. One night, a lot of prisoners were forcibly taken away and they were put into the same jail as me. A few buses parked here. The armed police were guarded outside with their cars parked here too. And then the prison guards and the armed police entered the empty courtyard of the building I lived in, afterwards they entered into the building and made the prisoners come out group by group. Then they led them onto the buses outside of the walls. Then they quickly took them away.

I once asked a prison doctor, because this particular doctor was very sympathetic to us Falun Gong practitioners. He was especially sympathetic towards me, because we were from the same hometown. Once he told me secretly, saying, "Don't go against the Communist Party. Don't resist them. Whatever they tell you to do, just do it. Don't go against them forcefully. If you do, then when the time comes, you won't even know how you will have died. When it happens, where your heart, liver, spleen, and lungs will be taken, you won't even know either."

At that time the doctor also told me, "Falun Gong practitioners, they all practice qigong.

They often exercise their bodies, so their bodies are very good. So think about it, those organs are of course very good also. So do you think we rather pick you practitioners or those other prisoners? Those prisoners all abuse drugs or alcohol. Otherwise they still have many unhealthy habits. It might happen that, when you take their organs, they are damaged beyond repair. You practitioners' organs are the best.”

REASON FOR TORTURE There are too many phrases used to force practitioners to give up Falun Gong. For example:

A - If you don't write the promise you won't be able to step out of this door.

B - Will make you disappear if you continue to be stubborn.

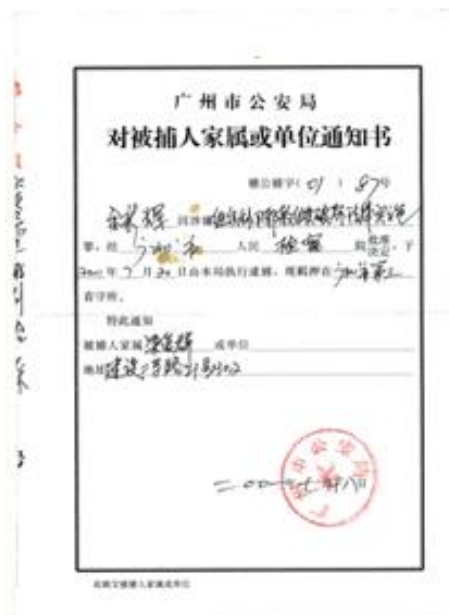

C - [if you] still won't convert, you will end up dying in vain.
